OMA launches the OMA Foundation

- An initiative to promote education of young people in Mexico

Monterrey, Mexico, October 13, 2017—Mexican airport operator Grupo Aeroportuario del Centro Norte, S.A.B. de C.V., known as OMA (NASDAQ: OMAB; BMV: OMA), announced yesterday, October 12, the launch of the OMA Foundation as a platform to promote and consolidate community projects, working with civil society organizations and social entrepreneurs.

The OMA Foundation was launched at an event at the Hotel Camino Real, with the participation of Bernardo Quintana, the Chairman of OMA's parent company, Empresas ICA; Diego Quintana, Chairman of the board of OMA, other members of the board of directors, OMA management team, and special invitees from institutions and organizations that share OMA's Social Responsibility objectives.

Porfirio González, OMA's CEO, commented: "From our beginnings, OMA has sought to act responsibly with all our stakeholders. Our commitment with communities in the regions where we operate is to support programs that promote development, quality of life, and education."

OMA Foundation is supporting programs focused on developing technical skills, improving physical education infrastructure and equipment, and providing scholarships that help Mexican youth stay in school and develop professional skills.

This year, the OMA Foundation is starting to implement community projects in Pesquería, Nuevo Leon and Aldama, Chihuahua, in alliance with the non-profit organizations Jóvenes Constructores de la Comunidad A.C. and Servicios a la Juventud A.C.

"Grupo Aeroportuario del Centro Norte, through the OMA Foundation, is joining forces with and contributing to the global effort to provide scholarships to young people in vulnerable situations and also to help improve physical education infrastructure," added Diego Quintana, Chairman of OMA's board.

OMA is committed to Mexico. We will continue to support the development of projects that align social investment with our business strategy, by channeling resources and joining forces with initiatives that contribute to society.
