OMA announces resignation of Chief Financial Officer

Monterrey, Mexico, November 16, 2017—Mexican airport operator Grupo Aeroportuario del Centro Norte, S.A.B. de C.V., known as OMA (NASDAQ: OMAB; BMV: OMA), announced today that its Chief Financial Officer, Vicsaly Torres, has decided to leave the company in order to pursue other professional opportunities. The resignation is effective today.

The Board of Directors expects to designate a successor in the near future; in the interim, Porfirio González, OMA's CEO, will exercise the CFO responsibilities.

Mr. González said, "We wish to express our thanks to Vicsaly Torres for her contributions to OMA in the various positions she has held during her more than ten years with the company. We wish her the best in her future endeavors."

This press release may contain forward-looking information and statements. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts. These statements are only predictions based on our current information and expectations and projections about future events. Forward-looking statements may be identified by the words "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "target," "estimate," or similar expressions. While OMA's management believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, investors are cautioned that forward-looking information and statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and are generally beyond the control of OMA, that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied or projected by, the forward-looking information and statements. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, those discussed in our most recent annual report filed on Form 20-F under the caption "Risk Factors." OMA undertakes no obligation to update publicly its forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
