OMA AND ICA SIGN AGREEMENT FOR CONSTRUCTION OF TERMINAL B AT MONTERREY INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

- ICA to carry out the foundation, structure, and complementary works
 - Ps. 113.9 million, 183-day contract

Monterrey, N.L. and Mexico City, June 4, 2007 – Grupo Aeroportuario del Centro Norte, S.A.B. de C.V. (OMA) and Empresas ICA, S.A. de C.V. (BMV and NYSE: ICA) announced today the signing of a contract with for the foundation, structure, and complementary works on Terminal B of Monterrey International Airport.

The formal laying of the cornerstone for the new terminal, will take place today. Terminal B is expected to enter into service during the fourth quarter of 2008.

The fixed price, 183-day construction contract has a value of Ps. 113.9 million. It includes the construction of the foundation, the procurement, fabrication and assembly of the metallic structure, and the installation of the three-dimensional roofing structure. Through its subsidiaries Aeroinvest and SETA, ICA exercises control over 52% of OMA's shares.

OMA's total investment in Terminal B is expected to be approximately US$40 million.

Rubén López, the CEO of OMA, noted, "The new Terminal B is an integral part of the expansion of Monterrey International that will help meet the growing infrastructure needs of the Monterrey metropolitan area and the state of Nuevo Leon. We have put together a solid team for the design and construction of this project, in order to meet our strict timetable for completion and to ensure completion in a successful manner."

Jorge Aguirre, ICA Vice President and head of Civil Construction, said, "ICA has the technical expertise and the financial strength to comply with the project's requirements, and we expect to deliver a terminal building that will meet the highest standards of quality and safety, and which will contribute to OMA's success."
