

OMA announces resignation of Chief Financial Officer

Monterrey, Mexico, November 16, 2017—Mexican airport operator Grupo Aeroportuario del Centro Norte, S.A.B. de C.V., known as OMA (NASDAQ: OMAB; BMV: OMA), announced today that its Chief Financial Officer, Vicsaly Torres, has decided to leave the company in order to pursue other professional opportunities. The resignation is effective today.

The Board of Directors expects to designate a successor in the near future; in the interim, Porfirio González, OMA's CEO, will exercise the CFO responsibilities.

Mr. González said, "We wish to express our thanks to Vicsaly Torres for her contributions to OMA in the various positions she has held during her more than ten years with the company. We wish her the best in her future endeavors."
